

N. Y. GIANTS TO HOLD TRYOUTS

The New York Giants will hold a tryout baseball camp in Monrovia on Oct. 8 to 11, announces Diamond Joe Faeh, Southern California scout for the club.

The camp, under the supervision of Mickey Shuler, will start at 10 a. m. on each of the days scheduled. All players are to furnish their own gloves, shoes, uniform and pay their own expenses. If a player is signed to any of the 19 Giant farm teams, his expenses will be refunded.

Rotary Kickoff Dinner Tonight

Dud DeGroot, coach of the Los Angeles Dons, will bring two of his football players with him to night when he is the featured guest of the Torrance Rotary club kickoff dinner to be held at the Torrance Woman's club.

Marking the beginning of Bay league play, the Rotarians have invited Eddie Cole, Torrance coach, and Jack Hood, Tartar captain, to be present. Russ Striff, coach of the Redondo Seahawks, will also be present with two of his stars, little Seco Torres, 134-lb. quarterback, and Howard Bubbee, left half who scored three touchdowns against San Bernardino in the Redondo opener.

DeGroot is expected to bring with him The Glen Dobbs, fabulous halfback recently acquired by the Los Angeles All-American conference team, and another player. The Rotary program has been arranged by Lloyd Waller, principal of Torrance high school.

Jr. Touch Grid League Opens

Boys 15 years old and younger are asked to get in touch with Elmer "Red" Moon if they are interested in joining a touch football league.

Practice will begin tomorrow afternoon at the Fern avenue playground and a schedule of games will be drawn up when the league is organized. The contests will be played after school and on Saturdays.

REDONDO MENTOR... Russ Striff, Seahawk coach, used to have a kid named Cole quarterbacking his Redondo eleven. Tomorrow night Striff will send his gridders out to meet the Torrance Tartars, now coached by Eddie Cole, the same Cole who used to be quarterback for Redondo.

MIDGETS LOSE

Normont Terrace's midgets recently dropped a football meeting to Channel Heights, 15-0.

Normont's lineup included: Moore, end; Hammond, guard; Goode, center; Harris, end; Cole, quarter; Eggleston, half; Treese, full.

P.V. Title Won By Ernie Krig

Ernie Krig, sales employe of the National Supply Co., was the winner of the recent Palos Verdes golf club championship, by virtue of his one under par 70 in the final round of the tournament.

A 25-foot putt on the 16th hole enabled Krig to defeat his opponent, Elmer Clement of Redondo Beach, one up. Ernie had gained the final round with a two under par 69 round.

Another National man, Hi Morrison, was the runner-up in the second flight play, while Lloyd Hill, sales control manager, took the cup as winner of the fourth flight handicap division.

Other National employes who qualified for the P. V. tournament included A. E. Witt, Judl Wilcox and "Slip" Kelsey.

MEETS CORKHILL... Freddie Negrete (above), lanky Wilmington youngster, who rates as one of the most promising lightweight comes in Southern California boxing, will engage Bobby Corkhill in the main event of the amateur fight show at the Wilmington Bowl tomorrow night.

It's a "natural" at the Wilmington Bowl tomorrow night in the final of the double main event which headlines Joe Craig's weekly amateur fight show.

Freddie Negrete of Wilmington vs. Bobby Corkhill of Compton College.

Fistfully sharper than a still-etto, the two rank head and shoulders above other amateur lightweights in the Southland, and a near-professional "championship" fight is in the offing when they square off for this rubber match in their personal grudge series. Each has won a decision, each is eyeing several pro offers, and each would like nothing better than to knock the other's block off.

First half of the double featured also lightweight brawl, finds Bobby Trujillo of San Pedro re-climbing the ladder to fistic prominence after several months layoff—opposing John Turner of Long Beach.

The supporting show, starting with the first preliminary at 8:30 p. m., will be headed by Tito Garcia of Santa Ana vs. Art Brown, a Long Beach youngster, with such other matches as Al Smith vs. Art Rabonza of San Pedro, Carlos Valdez of Torrance vs. Chet Williams.

The pro card for next Wednesday at the Bowl will bring together Max Hutchins of Los Angeles and Frankie Angustin from Mexico City in the main event. This is a 10-round rematch of the two middleweights who fought such a sensational scrap in San Diego a few weeks ago.

Vaughan Rolls 269 Game

"Ace" Vaughn, captain of the Selma Cleaners' bowling team, led his single victory, the season's total for the squad so far is six wins and six losses for an even 500 average. This Sunday the Cleaners roll against the Pacific Bowl.

The other two local teams fared better than the Selma squad, with Lomita Auto Parts taking three straight from Compton Recreation at El Segundo. Their record now is 7 wins and 5 losses for a 563 average. They meet Zero Soft this Sunday.

Torrance Bowl took two and lost one from the Mike Cleary team to boost their wins to five and seven lost, an average of 417. The Torrance men take on the Rex L. Hodges club this week end at Redondo Beach.

Calling Local Chess Players!

An invitation to join their group has been extended by the San Pedro Chess club to all chess players in the area. The club meets from 7 to 10 p. m. every Wednesday in the club room of the Anderson Memorial playground, San Pedro.

At present, the challengers' match game series is in progress and is open to all club members. This series will determine the club's strongest players for the purpose of meeting outside competition in team play.

A championship tournament will be held early in January to name the club champion for 1948.
